The City of Douglas and Coffee County are honored to announce that Coffee County has been selected as regional site for the 2023 Veterans Day Commemoration Activities by the Veterans Day National Committee of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. This year, Veterans Day ceremonies recognized by VA will be held in 66 communities throughout 34 states and the District of Columbia to honor the Nation's Veterans. Coffee County is one of only five selected sites in Georgia. For the full details and a listing of the Veterans Day Commemorative activities taking place in Douglas & Coffee County, click here!

VETERANS DAY
HONORING ALL WHO SERVED

The City of Douglas and Coffee County, Georgia are honored to announce that Coffee County has been selected as regional site for the 2023 Veterans Day Commemoration Activities by the Veterans Day National Committee of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. All Veterans are invited to join the community ceremonies that will be held in their honor.

The Keep Douglas Beautiful (KDB) Committee received a generous donation from First National Bank of Coffee County for their educational program with third grade in Coffee County. The funds from the donation purchased the activity books that teaches children about litter prevention and the Litter Bug Mascot. The Community Foundation of Coffee County, Douglas Lions Club, CHS Art Club, Chamber of Commerce, Sunbelt Greenhouses, Lott Builders, and other local vendors have also contributed to the educational program and Little Libraries project. The Little Libraries will be located at Wheeler Park, North Madison Avenue Park, Emma Ward Park, and Eastside Park.

Stephen Lewis (FNBC Market President), Jessica Hudson (FNBC AVP/Loan Operations Officer), Joy Vickers (FNBC Sr. Vice President/Mortgage Officer), Litter Bug, Mayor Paulk, Dinitra Williams (KDB President) and Christian Mikell (KDB Executive Director)

CITY OF DOUGLAS OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED ON NOVEMBER 23 & 24, 2023 FOR THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS. OFFICES WILL REOPEN ON MONDAY, NOV. 27, 2023.

The Keep Douglas Beautiful Committee conducted a beautification project at North Madison Avenue Park on Saturday, October 28, 2023, from 9:30am-12Noon. Over 30 volunteers from the community assisted in improvement efforts at the park.

Community and neighborhood volunteers of all ages gave back to their community by helping pressure wash the building, picking up trash, and planting flowers in the park. North Madison Avenue Park is a more attractive neighborhood place thanks to all efforts of the volunteers and committee.

Special thanks to supplies for the project. Additional thanks to the Parks and Recreation Department, Community Development, Mayor's Youth Council, Teen Court, Customer Care, Ambitious Young Men-AYM, and other volunteers.

Coming up on November 18th will be the first Trash Dash Plogging Event along the Greenway Trail. Volunteers are needed for this fun event!

The committee is accepting Clear Your Clutter Pick Up applications through December 1, 2023 for the pick up event on January 20, 2024. Applications for this event may be downloaded by visiting the City of Douglas website at www.cityofdouglasga.gov/KDB.
